START DRIVE TO RAISE DROUGHT RELIEF MONEY

Red Cross Chairmen Begin to Realize Conditions; Ask for Aid to Relieve Suffering.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12. (AP)—A drive to raise $10,000,000 for drought sufferers was opened tonight by the Red Cross.

The call was issued by John Barton Payne, national chairman, who telegraphed 3000 Red Cross chapters the amount of money they were to obtain. This was announced after house republican leaders had devised a plan intended to bring a showdown tomorrow on the senate's $15,000,000 food provision for drought relief.

Leaders to Disagree.

Six leaders will move that the house disagree to the senate proposal and send it to conference with a view to its elimination. The administration has frowned on government appropriations for food loans.

Payne said the Red Cross had spent or authorized grants of $1,254,000. He added that $510,000 had been spent by chapters in Arkansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Alabama, West Virginia, Virginia, Ohio, Tennessee, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas and Montana.

"Pleas for assistance trebled in volume in the past three or four days over those received in the previous four months since August when the drought was first recognized as reaching proportions of a calamity, the Red Cross said in a statement.

Make Pleas for Aid.

"Chapter chairman were said only recently to have realized the seriousness of the situation," the Red Cross said. In one county the chairman had considered distress reports exaggerated 30 days ago but today he requested relief for 250 families and feared today more would be in need.

Dr. William DeKlein, medical director of the Red Cross, is en route to the drought states to confer with state health authorities on plans for a campaign against pelagra, malnutrition and other health problems.

In the house democrats plan to propose that the confreres on the drought bill be instructed to accept the $15,000,000 food provision.

Administration aides said, however, they expect their force to resist such a move.

DE BOE-BOW TRIAL IS STARTED

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 12. (AP)—The trial of Daisie DeBoe, ex-secretary of Clara Bow, on charges of stealing $16,000 from the flaming haired actress, opened today but it was an ordinary business man and not a girl from Hollywood who gave the packed courtroom its first big thrill.

Routine examination of the jury panel began. Finally one of the counsel asked a man if he had ever heard of Miss Bow. He shook his head and replied "No." The courtroom was aghast. The crowd tittered.

The state alleges that while acting as the actress' secretary for two years Miss DeBoe took about $16,000 from her bank account, buying automobiles, jewelry, clothes and furnishings.

WOULD CURB BANK RUNS; LIMIT ALIENS

Would Make it Criminal Offense to Circulate False Bank Reports.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12. (AP)—Recommendations for curbing bank runs and deporting undesirable aliens were received from treasury and labor department officials today by the communist investigation committee for presentation to the house January 17.

In a secret session Secretary Doak went on record for more stringent alien deportation laws. Comptroller of the Currency Pole asked for legislation making it a criminal offense to circulate false reports concerning any national bank.

Chairman Fish said he called Pole in connection with reports that runs and failures of certain banks were attributable to communists.

"Pole made definite legislative recommendations," said the New Yorker. "There is no law covering this subject at present. Communists are taking advantage of depressed conditions by instigating false rumors about the financial condition of banks."

STATE'S LOANS ARE VALUABLE

BOISE, Jan. 12. (AP)—The possibility that Idaho may make some money in foreclosed lands when values rise was seen today by Byron Haltt, director of public accounts.

In a report on an audit of the state endowment funds covering the period from the start of statehood until 1918, he said the state had foreclosed liens amounting to approximately $1,366,666. Of these lands, the state has sold enough to bring in $567,000, yet nearly three-quarters of this amount remains in the state's possession.

NERVES GONE; ARRESTED.

SEATTLE, Jan. 12. (AP)—Alton Eyper, son of a former Jersey City, N. J., mayor, arriving here after a world tour to recover from a nervous breakdown, was captured by police on a downtown street after he threw light globes and threatened several persons with a knife, who tried to disarm him from beating a discarded bass drum he found in a theatre basement.

BELIEVE CONGRESS WILL DO SOMETHING

House May Eliminate $15,000,000 Senate Food Item.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12. (AP)—A few logs broke loose today from the accumulation jam in congress leading the optimistic to hope that they were forerunners of a general movement.

The senate confirmed four of the nominees of the new tariff commission so speedily the proposal for night sessions, beginning this week, was held in abeyance pending developments.

The drought relief bill, an old man of the sea on house shoulders for six days, was jarred loose by special legislative statute. Administration leaders intend to send it to conference with instructions that the $15,000,000 it contains to buy food for hungry persons be eliminated.

May Revive Muscle Shoals.

There even was a hint during the day that Muscle Shoals might be patched up and sent back to the house. Chairman McNary of the confrees said they intended tomorrow to discuss arrangements for signing the compromise tentatively agreed on. It provides for government operation of the power plant and control of the power transmission lines.

The agreement was reached several days ago but has never reached the stage where it could be sent back to the house or senate for consideration.

The senate did not get through the day without its differences. After confirming four members of the tariff commission a controversy over Edgar D. Bossard, (Rep., Utah) began and was continuing at adjournement. A vote is expected tomorrow. Another remains to be confirmed but little opposition is expected.

The house worked late over the Vestal copyright bill. A committee heard recommendations for deporting undesirable aliens and for punishing "whispering campaigns" against national banks and members of the federal reserve system.

The row over the power commission lay dormant but there were signs that the last has not been heard from it.

DUDLEY WINS HIS FIRST BIG MATCH

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 12. (AP)—Smiling Ed Dudley who has threatened to win many golf competitions since he left Georgia 10 years ago finally crashed into the big money today by capturing the $3500 first money in the Los Angeles $10,000 open.

The big southerner, who is professional at the Concord Country club, Concordville, Penn., finished two strokes ahead of Eddie Loos and Al Espinosa, Chicago pros, with a brilliant 72 hole total of 285.

DISCHARGE POLICE.

SEATTLE, Jan. 12. (AP)—Patrolman W. J. Morgan, who fired on a bandit but did not prevent his escaping after a drug store holdup, and Patrolman W. W. Lallard, who was disarmed in the store by a customer on orders of the bandit, were suspended from the police for 30 and 15 days respectively.

REPORT UPRISING IN MANILA CURBED

MANILA, Jan. 12. (AP)—Offical reports to constabulary headquarters here today said authorities at Tayug, central Luzon village, which was the scene of an uprising of religious fanatics yesterday, had the situation well in hand.

Major J. C. Quimbo, constabulary intelligence officer, said there was no need of reinforcements.

Reports varied on the loss of life resulting from the brief uprising. Major Quimbo said three civilians were killed when the fanactics, known as "colorums," raided the village early Sunday.

BANKER IS CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT

Woman and Brother Held; Four Banks Are Closed.

AVA, Mo., Jan. 12. (AP)—Charges of embezzlement and assenting to deposits in the now closed Bank of Ava while the bank was in a failing condition were filed today against Mrs. Sallie Adams, president, and her brother, F. H. Turner, vice president. A state audit showed $221,000 in "family notes." Mrs. Adams is charged with embezzlement of $26,706.54 and Turner with embezzlement of $12,519.13 in the last three years.

Three Banks Close.

JACKSON, Miss., Jan. 12. (AP)—The state banking department announced today that the First National bank of Brookhaven, the Citizens' bank of Sturges and the Maben Home bank of Maben failed to open today. The closings were ascribed to heavy withdrawals.

To Pay Depositors.

KENDALLVILLE, Ind., Jan. 12.(AP)—The Noble County Bank and Trust company closed Saturday and was placed in the hands of the state banking department. Officials said they believed depositors will be paid in full. The bank had deposits of $1,489,170 at the last call.

TALKING BEACON HEARD IN ENGLAND

GLASGOW, Scotland, Jan. 12. (AP)—A talking beacon, the invention of Charles A. Stevenson, a cousin of Robert Louis Stevenson, has been installed at Little Cumbrae lighthouse on the Firth of Clyde.

It is the first of its kind and consists of a radio telephone transmission of a fog signal and speech from a gramaphone record. It speaks the word "Cumbrae" and sounds out the ship's distance in miles and cables from the signal station.

Characteristic blasts of the fog signal are also heard on wireless.

TAKES OWN LIFE.

CENTRALIA, Jan. 12. (AP)—E. T. Brown, 76, took his own life last night, leaving a note saying he was "poverty stricken," crippled and weak.

NEGRO SLAYER DIES IN BLAZE IN MISSOURI

Victim of Mob's Violence; Placed on Top of School Where He Attacked Teacher.

MARYVILLE, Mo., Jan. 12. (AP)—Raymond Gunn, negro, chained to the ridge pole of a little white country school house, died in flames today—a victim of a mob's vengeance.

Neither officers nor a national guard battery, mobilized to protect him, interfered after those who resorted to lynch law had taken Gunn from the automobile of Sheriff Hardy and marched and dragged him three miles to the school.

There, eye witnesses said, he was taken to the place where the battered and partly nude and violated body of Velma Colter, 19-year-old school teacher, had been found and he was made to repeat a confession.

Drenched With Gasoline.

The school room furniture was piled about the building. Gunn was forced to mount a ladder and creep to the ridge pole. Shingles were removed to permit him to be fastened to the rafters. Doors, floors and furniture were drenched with gasoline and flames burst out.

The victim waved at the mob once before the flames reached his flesh then writhed and screamed until he died.

C Battery, 128th field artillery, had been mobilized on orders of A. V. Adams, adjutant general of Missouri, to assist Sheriff England in protecting Gunn. The troops were waiting for the sheriff's orders when the negro was taken from the car.

Were Under Sheriff.

Captain Ed Condon, commanding officer, said the unit was under orders to act only on the request of the sheriff.

"We were powerless to move," he added, "unless ordered to do so by Sheriff England. We left the armory at 3 p. m. without hearing from the sheriff."

That was hours after the lynching.

The 63-year-old sheriff was at home in bed suffering, he said, from a sprained back and arm resulting from his encounter with the mob.

Won't Identify Men.

He said, "It is too bad it happened but there were just too many of them for us. I recognized some of them but I will not identify them."

In his confession at the school house the negro introduced the name of Paul (Shike) Smith, 25, a negro hunting companion, and sought to place part of the blame for the actual clubbing of the teacher on him. Smith has disappeared since Gunn's arrest.

The lynching followed an unsuccessful attempt on his life at St. Joseph where he was taken for safekeeping after Nodaway county authorities announced he confessed and a mob began to form here.

OMAHA, Jan. 12. (AP)—Paul (Shike) Smith, said to have been implicated by Raymond Gunn in the murder of Velma Colter near Maryville on December 16, was arrested here late today by police detectives. He denied any connection with the death of Miss Colter.

PILOT KILLED IN AIRPLANE CRASH

Four Passengers Injured When Machine Lands on Steep Mountain.

CASCADE, Idaho, Jan. 12. (AP)—The pilot was killed and four passengers injured in the forced landing of a five-passenger plane on West Mountain, four miles from here, today.

Ray Fisher, 28, of Anaconda, Mont., until recenly with Haddock's Flying Circus, was the pilot.

The passengers were Charles Coleman, the most seriously hurt, whose leg was broken.... Esther Coleman, his daughter; Sid Coleman and Lew Koski. They were out of Cascade on a short flight in search for cattle. Two of them staggered here for aid.

The plane, belonged to George Stonebreaker, nationally known dog race trainer. He purchased it to get hunters into the rough Chamberlain basin region of central Idaho.

ENDORSE GIRARD FOR GAME WARDEN

SANDPOINT, Jan. 12. (AP)—Endorsement of Franklin Girard, Sandpoint democrat, to be state game warden was voted by the Sandpoint chamber of commerce today.

Girard has been in government forestry work in north Idaho. Telegrams carrying the endorsement were sent to Governor C. Ben Ross.

RASKOB DENIES SUN'S STATEMENT

Sends Letter to Columnist of Baltimore Paper; Many Charges.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12. (AP)—Chairman Raskob of the democratic national committee outlined tonight his view or his own position with reference to the party. In an open letter addressed to Frank R. Kent, columnist for the Baltimore Sun, he replied to an article that had been published in Kent's column.

Raskob said in part:

"You charge that I have taken over all the liabilities of the democratic party; assumed all its debt; that I am the only endorser on its notes; that I put Mr. Shouse in charge and am paying all operative expenses, including several large salaries; and I have made great reduction in the party debt; in short that I have paid for the party.

Denies Statements.

"None of these statements is true. I am one of the group endorsing the only committee note outstanding. Mr. Shouse was unknown to me previous to the 1928 campaign and was selected as chairman of the executive committee of the democratic national committee by the members of that committee after long and careful consideration of several important names and after consulting with other strong part leaders. . . .

"The million dollar reduction in the party debt was made not by me but by close friends and associates of Governor Smith who felt responsibility as a large part of our deficit and met it. I am loaning money to the national committee which will be repaid. . . .

"Your article infers that I was a republican and states that I voted for Coolidge, Harding and Hughes and became a democrat solely because of the Smith candidacy. None of the above is true although it has been used as political propaganda in every malicious way and in spite of my denials."

MAINTAIN FUTILE WATCH FOR FLIERS

Believe Mrs. Beryl Hart and Lieutenant MacLaren Have Perished.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12 (AP)—Messages to the Associated Press from half a dozen ships at sea today told of the sharp but futile watch being kept for the missing monoplane, Tradewind.

Along the French and Portuguese coasts and at the Canary Islands and Madeira a similar watch appeared fruitless.

Nowhere was any report received to indicate that the plane, piloted by Mrs. Beryl Hart and Lieutenant William S. MacLaren, was still in the air.

Mountainous seas, prevalent over nearly all the Atlantic, made it improbable that if the Tradewind had been forced down it could live for more than a short time.

The steamer Excelsior, heading eastward from the Azores, reported a rough sea with falling barometer and sporadic rain.

The master of the Exton wirelessed from southeast of Horta that he was keeping a special lookout but apparently no word. The Exton was meeting a moderate easterly gale and a rough easterly sea.

The liners Resolute and Conte Grande queried other shipping but had no report of the Tradewind. Like other vessels they reported rough water.

MONTANA SESSION IS IN FULL SWING

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 12. (AP)—The Montana legislature today began the second week of its 22nd session with its organization virtually complete and a sizeable budget on its calendar.

Prospects that the highway debenture measure will be considered were heightened by the appearance of the printed bill on members' desks today. Movement of the measure is being hastened in order that it may be submitted to the supreme court for a test of its legality.

If it meets that test the highway commission expects to develop its construction program with a definite sum available for matching federal aid. It will provide $1,500,000 a year for four years, payable from gas tax collections.

'ALFALFA BILL' IN GOVERNOR'S CHAIR

Oklahoma Inaugurates Ninth Consecutive Democratic Governor.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 12. (AP)—From the cotton patch and teepee and from high positions Oklahomans joined today to inaugurate William H. "Alfalfa Bill" Murray, their ninth successive democratic governor.

The white man, the red man and the negro formed a spontaneous pageant of Oklahoma history as 12,000 of them saw the gaunt constitutional authority take the oath of office from his 91-year-old father, Col. Uriha Dow Thomas Murray.

Murray, who has served notice that his administration would be one of the common people with tax slashing, said in an extemporaneous speech that he would "walk the highway alone," challenged his enemies and promised to reform the pardon and parole system.

Just after he had repeated the oath of office, Millett Koy Bitty, Comanche Indian chief, bright in ceremonial costume and paint, confronted him and uttered a prayer in his native tongue, wishing the "great chief" God speed and asking justice for all races.

The quiet housewife, who became Oklahoma's first lady, is one-eighth Chickasaw and Murray always has been close to Indian affairs. A man of simple dress and tastes, outspoken always, Murray has promised a new departure in Oklahoma governments. The state's last two elected executives were impeached and removed.

"NAVY BILL" IS NAMED COACH AT CALIFORNIA

BERKELEY, Calif., Jan. 12. (AP)—William "Navy Bill" Ingram, former coach at the United States Naval academy, today was appointed head football coach at the University of California. His contract is for three years.

His signing culminated a long search for a successor to "Nibs" Price, who has been retained for one year as basketball coach.

Graduate Manager Monohan spent several weeks in the east interviewing candidates. At various times it was reported Bob Zuppke, Illinois; Wallace Wade, Alabama; Bill Alexander, Georgia Tech; Knute Rockne, Notre Dame and others were in line for the job. Ingram's name was not mentioned in this connection.

Ingram's predecessor, Price, resigned following an unimpressive season that saw the Bears lose four conference and one non-conference games. After California had been overwhelmed 74 to 0 by the University of Southern California, Arthur Arlette, then editor of the Daily Californian, wrote several editorials demanding an investigation of local coaching conditions.

RELIEF CANTEENS FOR STRIKING MEN

CARDIFF, Wales, Jan. 12. (AP)—Relief canteens are beginning to dot the Welsh valleys where the weekly pay envelopes of 150,000 miners have been missing on two paydays now because of the coal strike.

There have been a flood of applications for assistance from women and children and families which are in distress. No adequate funds are available to aid the men during the stoppage and unless decisions in the pending test cases differ from precedent they will not be granted a dole.

It is the miners' contention that they are entitled to this recompense on the ground that the owners are attempting to keep them at work on illegal terms.

PINE RUST MOVES SOUTH.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—White pine blister rust, now vigorously fought in the New England states, is creeping further southward each year. Farmers are being advised to destroy currant and gooseberry bushes, host plants of the rust.

CONSOLIDATION MEASURES ARE BEING DRAFTED

Would Make Secretary of State Commissioner of Law Enforcement.

BOISE, Jan. 12. (AP)—The first of what promised to be a series of departmental consolidation measures came into the house today and precipitated a buzz of excitement about the corridors and occupied much time at a democratic caucus in the afternoon.

Measures introduced by Falls of Minnedoka and Davis of Latah proposed to make the commissioner of finance ex-officio commissioner of public investments and the secretary of state ex-officio commissioner of law enforcement. Representative Falls, house republican caucus chairman, said, these two items alone represented savings of $7200 annually in salaries.

He insisted it was in harmony, both with recommendations of retiring Governor H. C. Baldridge and C. Ben Ross, incoming governor, for reducing the cost of state government.

Much Opposition.

Considerable opposition to the proposal were heard on the part of some republicans who protested that the party was put in "a bad light" by attempting to deprive the new democratic governor of appointive powers.

James F. Ailshie, former supreme court justice, urged the legislators to bring regulatory laws up to uniform standard in agreement with a plan for all other states of the union. Ailshie addressed a joint session of the house committee on uniform laws and the senate judiciary committee, advocating uniformity in the declaratory judgment act, the firearms act, air licensing act and arbitration act.

Request Support.

Coupled with his arrangements was a request that Idaho contribute a fair share toward support of a commission on uniform laws now supported by the American Bar association, particularly in the case of the declaratory judgment act.

He explained that parties who are uncertain as to their rights and duties, who desire to avoid damage or litigation over business they are about to transact or contracts have been entered into may file suit and ask a final ruling as to the legal effect of the act or the extent of obligation before a breach has occurred.

A uniformity licensing act already has been adopted while a uniform divorce act, outlined by the Idaho Law commission, was found, Ailshie said, to be in reasonable harmony with the Idaho statute.

A law that is uniform in every state to require licensing of firearms and to require permits to purchase them he described as the first attack on criminality. He assured the committee that such a law would not interfere with those legally entitled to carry firearms.

Old Age Pension Bill.

An old age pension bill signed by both republican and decomratic floor leaders and by other representatives was also introduced in the house.

The senate squabbled briefly over the issue of hiring two lawyers to draw up bills, then voted for the pair by a majority that found only six against it.

Senator Evans, Power, said one attorney ought to be enough and pleaded that in the interests of economy in government that one should be employed.

Senate democrats and republicans will divide the assignment of attorneys, A. C. Cordon, Rigbee, former assistant attorney general being promised the republican nomination while the democrats held a joint caucus to consider a selection. No decision was reached.

Lukens Is Willing.

In connection with the consolidation measures it was pointed out the department of law enforcement has been administered by Secretary of State Lukens ever since its creation four years ago. The secretary also offered his services to the governor in this dual capacity. No appointment to the commissioner's post has been made yet by Ross.

Advised of the introduction of the bills Governor Ross had no comment to make except that he "would reserve comment until the bills are before me."

He already has announced the appointment of Jesse Walling, Nampa, as commissioner of public investments and is generally understood to have made a selection for commissioner of finance, although this has not been announced.

Bill Explained.

The old age pension bill would provide that residents of the state for 10 years past who have become indigent after the age of 65 be entitled to a county pension of $25 a month. Fifteen years of residence in the United States is another requirement.

The money would be appropriated from the county current expense fund

BUSTER KEATON IS WAR PICTURE HERO

Buster Keaton, whose initial talking comedy was the mirthful burlesque of Hollywood activities, "Free and Easy," again turns to travesty in his second dialogue production, "Dough Boys," which is said to present a picture of the World war from a decidedly humorous viewpoint. It shows at the Grand theatre for three days, starting today.

Appearing as the son of a millionaire, who quite unexpectedly finds himself in the firing lines, Keaton runs the gamut of a long series of what are reported to be side-splitting situations in which he ends up as the hero of the regiment without knowing what it is all about.

Sharing honors with the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer comedian in his newest laugh-getter is the director, Edward Sedgwick, whose efforts in connection with the production revealed an amazing versatility inasmuch as he not only supervised the filming of the picture, but assisted Al Boasberg and Sidney Lazarus in preparation of the scenario, acted the role of the camp cook and wrote one of the song numbers of the picture, "Mister Military Man." Incidentally Sedgwick is the director who guided Keaton through such past successes as "The Cameraman," "Spite Marriage" and "Free and Easy."

Information is that the plot of "Dough Boys" gives Keaton an opportunity to veer slightly more on straight dramatic acting than is usually seen in the comedian's work. Individuals, however, who have seen advance "shots" of the production are emphatic in their assurances that it is not lacking in the usual quota of laughs. A sequence in which it is said Keaton outdoes himself is that of a "dugout show" in which the soldiers impersonate women and the star executes a riotous "Apache" dance with acrobatic variations.

SUNSHINE MELLOWS

Heat Purifies

LUCKIES are always kind to your throat

The advice of your physician is: Keep out of doors, in the open air, breathe deeply; take plenty of exercise in the mellow sunshine, and have a periodic check-up on the health of your body.

Everyone knows that sunshine mellows—that's why the "TOASTING" process includes the use of the Ultra Violet Rays. LUCKY STRIKE—the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—THEN—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat purifies and so "TOASTING"—that extra, secret process—removes harmful irritants that cause throat irritation and coughing.

BUILDINGS FURNISH COSTUME DESIGNS

Beaux Arts Ball Turns Modernistic; Skyscrapers Inspire Ideas for New Dresses.

NEW YORK (AP)—Some of skyscraper town's tallest buildings inspire costumes which famous architects announce they will wear to the annual Beaux Arts ball January 23.

Whitney Warren, designer of Louvain library, will attend the ball dressed to represent the Grand Central terminal.

William Van Alen will dress as the new chrysler building. Other tall structures depicted in costume will be the Metropolitan Life, the International Telephone building and the new Waldorf-Astoria hotel, which is under construction.

A model tenement house and the museum of the city of New York also will be portrayed in costumes.

This year's dance is a modern fete. The color scheme is silver and flame and the setting will be modernistic and typical of New York and New Yorkers.

Turn Out En Masse.

Society turns out en masse for the architects' gala night. Last year's party harked back to the rennaissance and was Florentine in setting and costuming, but the 1931 ball is wider in scope.

Guests may attend in costumes of any period and any country, provided they conform to the color scheme of silver and flame.

New York counts the Beaux Arts ball one of its gayest nights and the closest approximation of the famous Quart'z'art ball of Paris the social calendar offers.

Proceeds of the evening go to education projects of the Beaux Arts institute, which provides instruction in architecture, sculpture and mural design to students throughout the country.

This is the last Beaux Arts ball for Broadway. Future parties are to be staged at the new Waldorf-Astoria hotel.

PLAN CARD PARTY.

The ladies of St. Michael's parish will give a card party and dance at the Morning club Friday January 16. Six prizes wil be awarded. Refreshments will be served and dancing will conclude the evening's entertainment.

O. S. C. TRAMPLES IDAHO, 52 TO 30

MOSCOW, Jan. 12. (AP)—Oregon State college snowed Idaho under a 52 to 30 score tonight in the Vandal's Pacific Coast conference 1931 basketball debut. The score at halftime was 36 to 11 for Oregon.

Opening with the same quick-breaking, sure-shooting attack that they used against Washington State college last week end, the Beavers buffaloed the Vandals from the start.

From the start the Oregonians attacked viciously, looping baskets from all parts of the court and by halftime they had the game well on ice.

Idaho rallied in the second half but was stopped after scoring eight points. Idaho's coach, in a desperate effort to find an effective combination, started shooting in the bench but the Beavers were too handy. Oregon gave second stringers a chance.

COUGARS SWAMP WHITMAN, 39-19

PULLMAN, Jan. 12. (AP)—Washington State college romped over Whitman college, 39 to 19, in a non-conference game tonight.

The Cougars started romping early and by half-time had built up a 21 to 10 lead and were not pestered for the rest of the game. Gordon, six feet and a half, played an aerial game all by himself, far out of reach of Missionary guards and score 20 of Washington State's total points. Both teams took up long range action in the second period with Washington State getting the better of the argument.

LAUNDRYMEN BEAT BUTCHERS

After having covered the wagers of the Butchers, the Laundrymen went out Sunday and defeated the Butchers, 215 to 177, in the first team shoot on the Nine Mile traps of the Wallace Gun club. Scores were as follows:

Vincent 40, Harry Pearson 39, Arthur Brown 39, Edd Wood 38, Frank Warneke 38, T. J. Busch 38, C. E. Bunnell 37, M. Flink 36, W. J. Hall 34, G. H. Knuppenberg 34, C. A. McMurray 31, Emil Pfister 23; shooting at 25 birds—E. L. Hale 23, Les Case 22, O. E. Thompson 21, Mrs. Hale 19, Master Don Burnett 17, Tom Crowley 14, W. F. Nordberg 13, C. Webb 9.

Seven shooters, five from Burke and two from Mullan, joined the club Sunday to make a total of 29 who participated in the regular Sunday shoot. Scores, for this early in the season, are reported to be unusually good.

A challenge issued by the Kinks of King street has been accepted by the Queen Bee team.

Sport Slants

By ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

For no particular reason, from an adjoining steam cabinet in Artie McGovern's gymnasium, I started talking about great infielders with Babe Ruth, the great outfielder.

The Babe was a great pitcher before he was a greater outfielder and home run hitter, yet he has always harbored an idea he would have made a whale of a first baseman. He studied that position closely and many of the greatest stars who have played it.

"Hal Chase was in a class by himself at first," said Ruth. "He made it look like a cinch until somebody else tried to do the stunts he did. He was chain-lightning on slow rollers or bunts down the first base line. He had a great arm and he was a hitter, too."

With Chase on first, the rest of Ruth's all-star infield would be composed of Napoleon Lajoie at second base, Hans Wagner at shortstop and Jimmy Collins of the old Red Sox at third base.

"I'm picking only from those I have seen and know something about," the Big Bam qualified. "There were a lot of other good ones but I'll take these fellows for my team."

For purposes of ballyhoo in a season of depressed and deflated values, the Stribling-Carnera match is the best that Miami can offer to the fistic fandom in Florida and hope for anything like a profitable return at the turnstiles.

Most of the other heavyweight projects are not even alluring enough to fill a medium sized indoor arena, much less an outdoor bowl such as Miami has built to accommodate close to 50,000.

Carnera and Stribling have fought twice abroad but got an even break. However much the big Italian may be pooh-poohed, there is still enough mystery about his real ability, plus his unquestioned drawing power, to make him a good "card."

Stribling has always been the fair-haired boy in the south and his sharp rise to prominence within the past year, with a ranking as the No. 1 American heavyweight, enhances his value as a box-office attraction.

Credit for bringing about one of the most radical sports innovations of 1930, notes Earl Coughlin, sports editor of the Cedar Rapids (Iowa) Gazette, goes to Lee Keyser of Des Moines, the man who changed minor league baseball from a matinee to an evening pastime.

Keyser was a pioneer in installing the lights for his club and the idea, Coughlin points out, spread rapidly throughout the country. The Western league, of which Des Moines is a member, and the Mississippi Valley league will operate entirely under the lights this year. The Pacific Coast league also is completely equipped for night work.

TWO BIRTHS.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Steuart R. Lundy, Osburn, Sunday morning and a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Visintainer, Wallace, Saturday morning in a local hospital.

BUNTON RELEASED.

Frank Bunton, deputy sheriff, was released from a local hospital Sunday where he was confined for treatment following a fall down the courthouse steps while taking food to the prisoners.

Nearly 20,000,000 persons attended licensed greyhound races in England during 1930, it is estimated.

HURT IN FALL

Earl McEachern sustained a torn ligament in his ankle when he fell from a ladder while washing windows at the Wallace garage early Sunday morning.

$30,000,000 IN SPECIAL TAXES: YOU SHARE IN THIS BILL

Buyers of fire insurance indirectly but actually contribute a vast sum—approximately $30,000,000 annually—through taxes, most of which are of a special nature, additional to the regular taxes borne by insurance companies in common with other lines of industry.

The original purpose of special taxes upon insurance was to maintain state supervision, but such supervision uses but four cents of each dollar. The balance goes into the general funds of the states.

These special taxes and the taxes upon property which insurance companies pay in common with all other owners of property are factors in the cost of fire insurance.

The Chamber of Commerce of the United States says:

". . . Special State Taxes now levied on Policyholders through insurance companies should not be considered as a source of general revenue, but should be reduced to the total in each state which will adequately support such state's departmental supervision . . ."

July 19, 1930

American Cigar Company,
111 Fifth Avenue,
New York, N. Y.

Gentlemen:

"Spit" is a filthy word. So is the practice of spitting.

More serious than any consideration of nicety, however, is the very grave danger of contamination carried in the mouth secretions.

Your attack on this evil in connection with your recent cigar advertising is an effective stroke which should do much to awaken the public to this peril.

I hope you do not abandon the attack. If my endorsement is of any value, please feel free to publish it in your campaign.

Sincerely yours,
J. C. Eldridge
HAMILTON COUNTY HEALTH DIRECTOR.

...one of 56 health officials from 56 different points approving Cremo's crusade against spit or spit-tipping.

Every smoker, every wife whose husband smokes cigars, should read Dr. Eldridge's letter.

"Who are the friends of 'Spit'?"

YOU MAY WELL ASK THIS QUESTION WHEN 56 IMPORTANT HEALTH OFFICIALS HAVE WRITTEN SO STRONGLY AGAINST THE EVILS OF SPIT OR SPIT-TIPPING.

Dr. Eldridge writes: "Your attack on this evil in connection with your recent cigar advertising is an effective stroke."

The war against spit is a crusade of decency. Join it...Smoke Certified Cremo—a really wonderful smoke—mild—mellow—nut-sweet! Every leaf entering the clean, sunny Cremo factories is scientifically treated by methods recommended by the United States Department of Agriculture.
